

Associate Membership Form

European Society of Criminology Early Stage Researchers Working Group

Name: _____

Institute/Company
(max 30 characters) _____

Department (max 30 characters) _____

If postgraduate student:
name of supervisor _____

Address _____

Postal Code _____ City _____

Country _____

Telephone _____

Fax _____

E-mail _____

Research Experience

Areas of Interest
(includes PhD area)

In order to participate in the Working Group you should join the ESC through the Executive Secretariat of the ESC. As a member you will receive a copy of the European Journal of Criminology and a regular newsletter. Details of registering as a member are available at: <http://www.esc-eurocrim.org/>.

Terms of Membership

Aim: Our aim is to increase the attractiveness and relevance of the ESC to criminological and criminal justice researchers who are in the early stages of their research careers ('early stage researchers'). These will primarily be doctoral and post-doctoral researchers (up to 7 years research experience). The aim is to provide a forum to discuss, develop and collaborate on new and innovative criminal justice research with other early stage researchers and lead/senior academics on a European level

Organisation

- ESC Working Group for Postgraduate (Early Stage) Researchers (doctoral and post doctoral researchers)
- Supported by ESC, with administrative support from Sheffield University's Centre for Criminological Research
- Organised collaboratively between members of the Executive of the ESC, the Centre for Criminological Research at Sheffield University and Scottish Centre for Crime and Justice Research, Glasgow University¹.

Membership

- Any doctoral student working on criminological/criminal justice research in a European institution (university or research institute). Postgraduate student, or Postgraduate researcher up to 7 years research experience (There is no age limit (depends on experience)
- Any post doctoral/contract researcher (0-7 years experience) conducting research in a European institution (university or research institute)
- It is important to target those institutions that have criminological researchers, but are not the large research centres.
- Members would Registered member of ESC and accept the terms, conditions and constitution of the ESC: <http://www.esc-eurocrim.org/constitution.shtml>

Administration (subject to change as the group develops)

The Working Group is currently coordinated by the Working Group Organising Committee. The current chair of the Working Group and Organising committee is Dr Sabine Carl (sabine.carl@googlemail.com).

Associate Members

- Lead Researchers and Senior Academics to be invited to be Associate members of the Group (Please refer to role and remit at bottom of this form)
-

Consent

In signing the membership form and joining the group I consent:

- To my name being placed on the ESC Working Group distribution list*
- To brief details of my research being placed on the Webpage of the Group as provided by me to the Group*
- To links being set up with other appropriate research centres and organisations*

Signed

Dated

Please return completed forms to the Working Group chair - Dr Sabine Carl (sabine.carl@googlemail.com).

Role and remit of Associate Members

Membership is subject to the rules of membership of the ESC and the European Postgraduate and Early Stage Researchers Working Group.

Associate members will represent a group of Senior Academics who have diverse interests in research areas and methodologies used within criminological and criminal justice research.

Ways in which you can contribute (please complete the pro-forma below)

- 1. Help the Group to develop by offering advice and expertise.*
- 2. Encourage any postgraduate students or early stage researchers working within your Institution to participate in the group.*
- 3. Provide input into the groups meetings at the annual ESC conference.*

Ways in which you may benefit

- 1. It provides an opportunity to meet with a diverse range of students and early stage researchers undertaking a wide variety of research in different institutions across Europe.*
- 2. Share knowledge and experience gained through the pursuit of knowledge within criminology and criminal justice with the next generation of researchers.*

Associate Members Pro-forma

Please tick as appropriate as to what you would like to do:

- Lead a session at the Annual ESC Conference (for example, a presentation on funding opportunities, putting a research proposal together; working on large collaborative projects)
Areas of expertise:
- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Funding | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Publishing | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Collaboration | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Networking (European) | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Putting Research Proposals together | <input type="checkbox"/> |
- Offer guidance to the Co-ordinating Group (for example, devising a newsletter, web page)
- Promote the activities of the Group through your Institution (for example, distributing any leaflets or putting details of our web pages as a link on your institutions website)
- Help with sponsoring any events and or obtaining sponsorship for any events (for example, hosting a seminar at your Institution)
- Offer guidance to postgraduates or early stage researchers in reading through any draft research proposals
- Offer guidance to postgraduates or early stage researchers in reading through any draft articles
- Keep the Group informed of any useful seminars or conferences held in your institution/country that may be of use to members

Name

Title:

Institution:

Role within the Institution:

Areas of expertise (subject and research methodologies):

Data Protection Act

Please tick the box if you consent to your name and contact details appearing on our website and on the ESC web site

Please tick the box if you consent to your name and contact details appearing on any promotional literature we may send out

Please tick the box if you consent to your name and contact details being held on a database for the purposes of a mailing list for the group.

Please tick the box if you consent to being included on an email distribution list